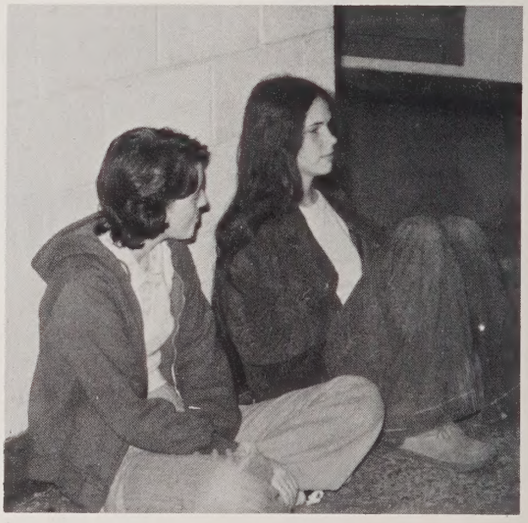
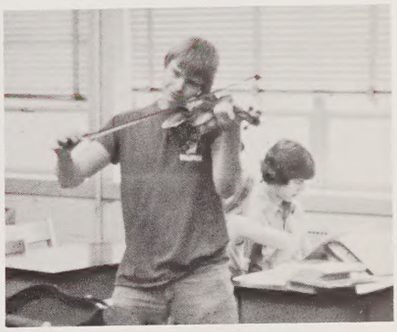
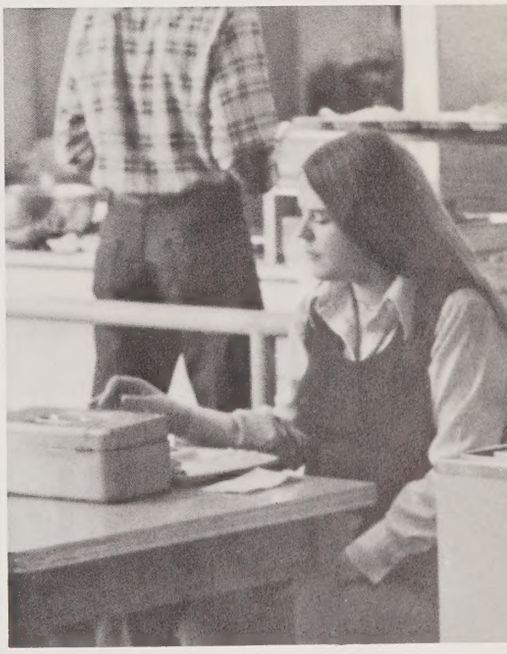
... and my grandpa used to say,
"Boy, you got to learn from experience.
The past can take the future in her gnarled hands —

"The world fears a new experience more than it fears anything. Because a new experience displaces so many old experiences . . . The world doesn't fear a new idea. It can pigeon-hole any idea. But it can't pigeon-hole a real new experience."

- D.H. Lawrence



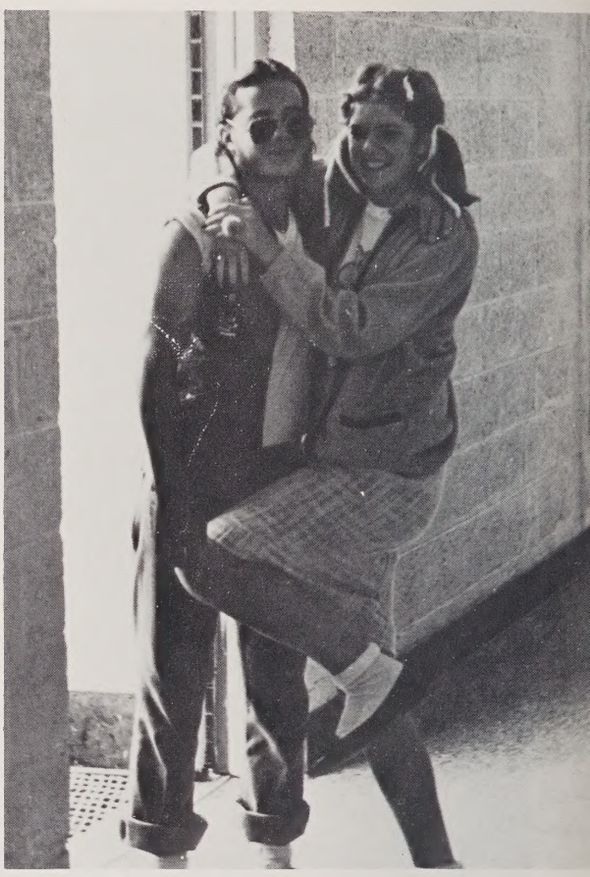




"If only we are faithful to our past, we shall not have to fear our future."

- John Foster Dulles

And through the wisdom of her years
Reshape tomorrow so that it holds less ...
Uncertainties."



North Davidson, Shelby struggle to 21-21 tie for WNCHSAA title

By SARAH SUE INGRAM
Staff Sports Writer

The football could have been greased, watered down, buttered, invisible or oiled, and it wouldn't have made any difference.

All North Davidson had to do to win the football championship of the Western North Carolina High School Athletic Association was hold on to the football.

But the pigskin was as elusive as that title. Four fourth-quarter fumbles, two turned into instant touchdowns, cost North Davidson a 21-21 tie with Shelby, and now the record books will read "Co-champions."

"I don't like the sound of that word 'co,'" voiced Shelby Coach Gerald Allen afterwards, and his sentiments were probably shared by all. "That word is better than getting beat, but it's not like winning."

It wasn't, and nobody won. But the Black Knights did claim both honors for outstanding individual performances. Quarterback Robert Everhart was selected by a panel of sportswriters as best offensive player, and teammate Bradley Thomason was recognized as the best defensive man on the field.

Ironically, Friday night's title clash was an offensive showcase. But in the end, it was the Golden Lion defense that made the final score a standoff.

As the fourth quarter began, North clutched a 21-7 lead and the Knight defense had just held Shelby on its own 46-yard line. Then the Lion punter boomed a high-rising 52-yard punt, North's Perry Tuttle waved a fair catch signal but lost the ball over his head, and Shelby recovered on the Knight two-yard line.

His fumble recovery gave the home bleachers a brief sigh of relief that turned to exasperated gasps of horror only minutes later.

The Knights attempted to go up the middle twice for only one yard, and on third down, they elected to try the option.

Quarterback Everhart rolled left on his own-three-yard line and at the last minute pitched out to halfback David Robertson. He never had a chance at the ball but reached back in vain only to see Shelby's Derrick Haynes pick up the third North fumble and fall into the end zone for the touchdown.

The Shelby bleachers went delirious but settled down to witness the conversion attempt that would mean the difference between a tie and a loss.

Lion signal caller Lackey rolled left and spotted end Danny Allen all alone in the end zone for the deciding two-pointer with 1:12 left in the game.

No one was leaving, and when Tuttle returned the kickoff to the 45-yard line, North's field goal kicker Jeff Henderson started warming out and dragging John Keenan into the end zone with him.

North then came right back with still another touchdown as Everhart hit Steve Cloer with a jump pass on the money, and Henderson's kick made it 14-7.

The Knights scored again early in the second quarter after Robertson connected with Tuttle on a 30-yard halfback pass to the three-yard line. Robertson took it over from there going up the middle untouched. Probably no one imagined that would be North's last score.

Shelby took the ensuing kickoff following the third Knight touchdown and marched 74 yards to the Knight three-yard line. But on fourth down, Thomason crashed through to sack Beam and turnover the football.

North was driving again just before the half as Donald Meyers snared a 24-yard pass from Everhart and Cloer tucked away another 15-yard spiral even though he was sandwiched between two defenders.

Beam intercepted Everhart's next heave to mark the Knights' first turnover, but that one wasn't costly.

North's Danny Huneycutt came up with his own interception early in the third quarter to stop the marching Lions, and he fumbled the ball away luckily into the hands of teammate Mike Graham.

The Knights went to the air again driving 55 yards, but on the next play, a touchdown pass from backup quarterback Dean Jarvis to Tuttle was called back. That 15-yard penalty, one of several infractions that hurt the Knights in the second half, killed that drive.

Then the contest went into the fourth quarter, and it was all Shelby.

The Golden Lions totaled 266 yards rushing last night with Youngblood carrying for 113 and Beam grounding out 103. North's Clark, who hasn't played the last two weeks because of a broken hand, claimed game-high rushing yardage with 128, while Robertson had 45, including 38 in the first quarter.

The Knights took a huge edge in the passing category with 210 yards to the Lions' five. But it didn't really matter since there was no playoff decision on yardage or sudden death or anything else.

"I feel like SOMETHING ought to happen," said Allen of the association's lack of a tie-breaking policy. "They leaves you with a blah feeling."

He was right. The game was thrilling, down-to-the wire, filled with spectacular catches, zigzagging runs and extremes of emotion. But when it was all over, there was a nothingness casting gloom over everyone concerned.

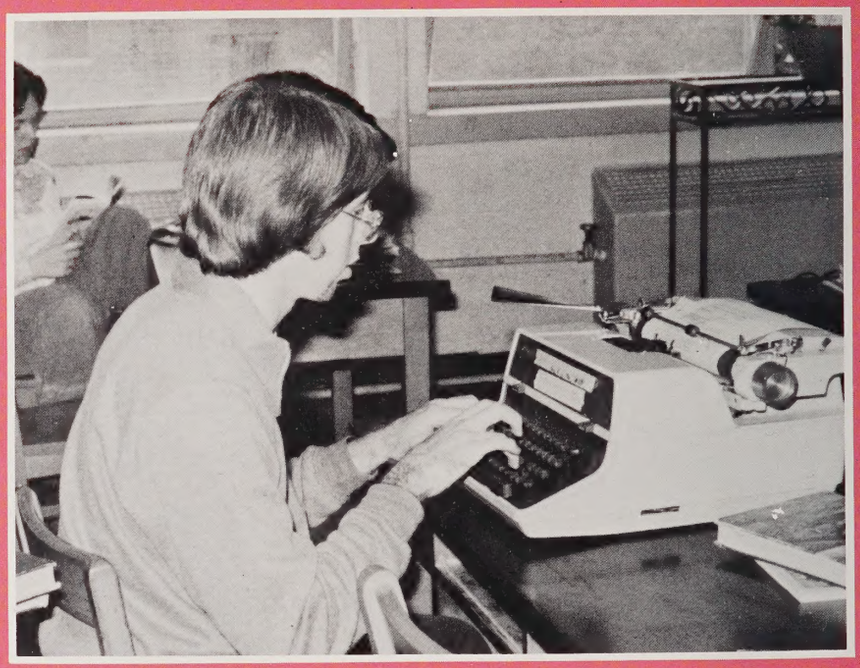
"Lord, deliver me from the man who never makes a mistake, and also from the man who makes the same mistake twice."

- William J. Mayo



I guess the old philosopher was right;
The mistakes of yesterday
Will manifest themselves in many of our future decisions.
But can we always rely on experience?

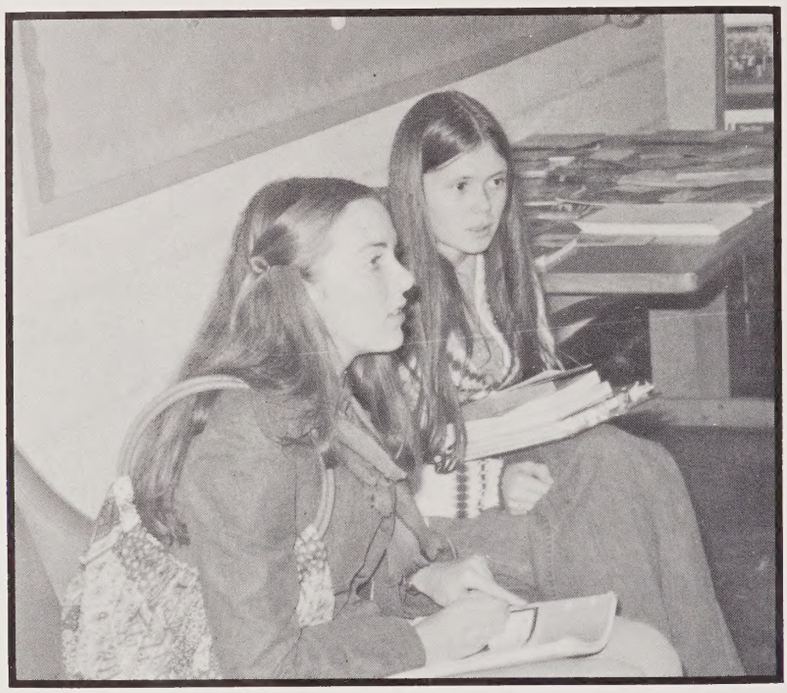
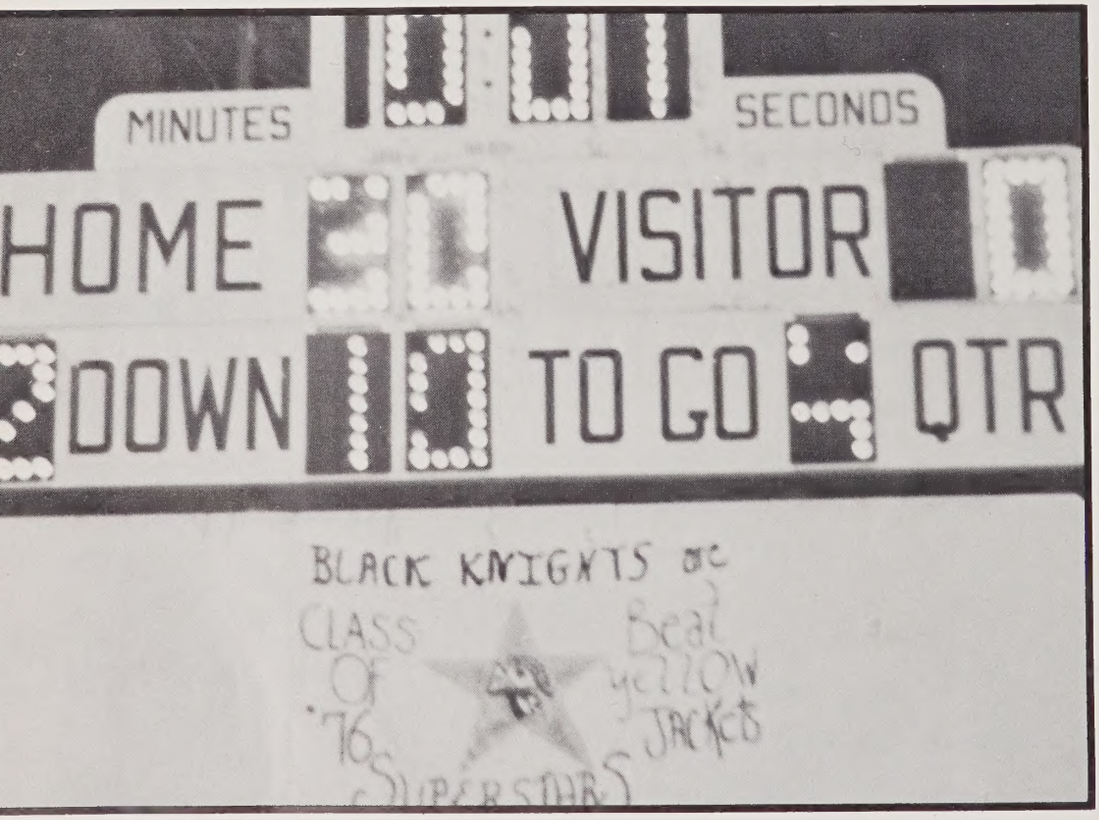
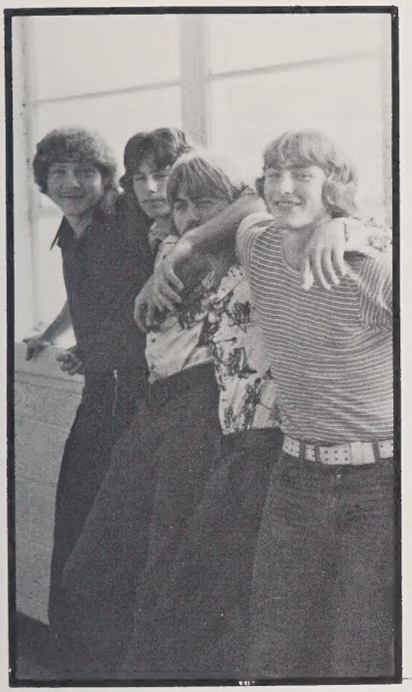
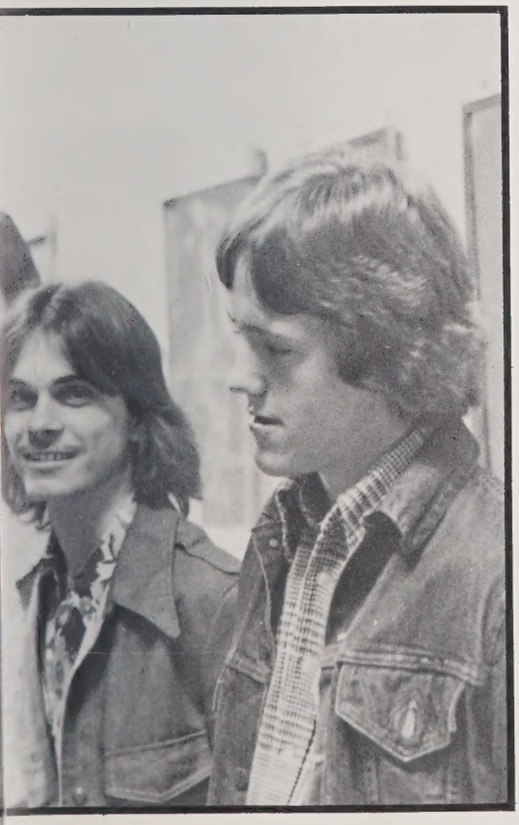
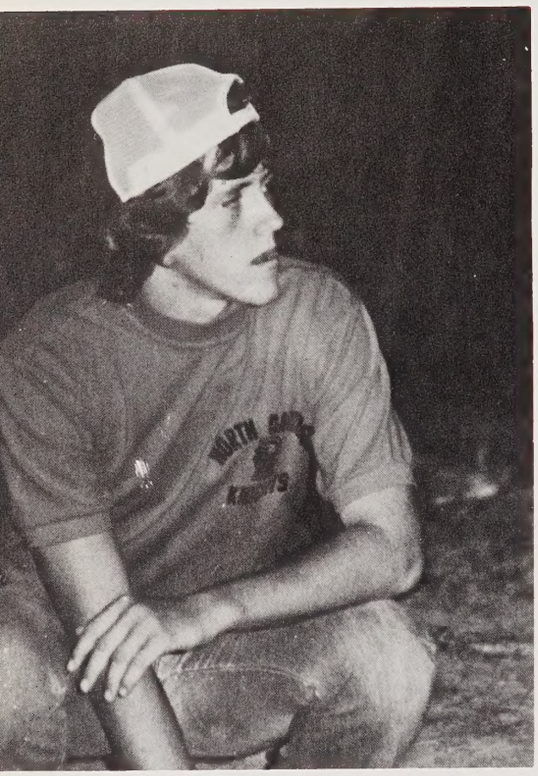
We've got our friends by our side and sweet success; man, the world's on a string—
We can climb that mountain!







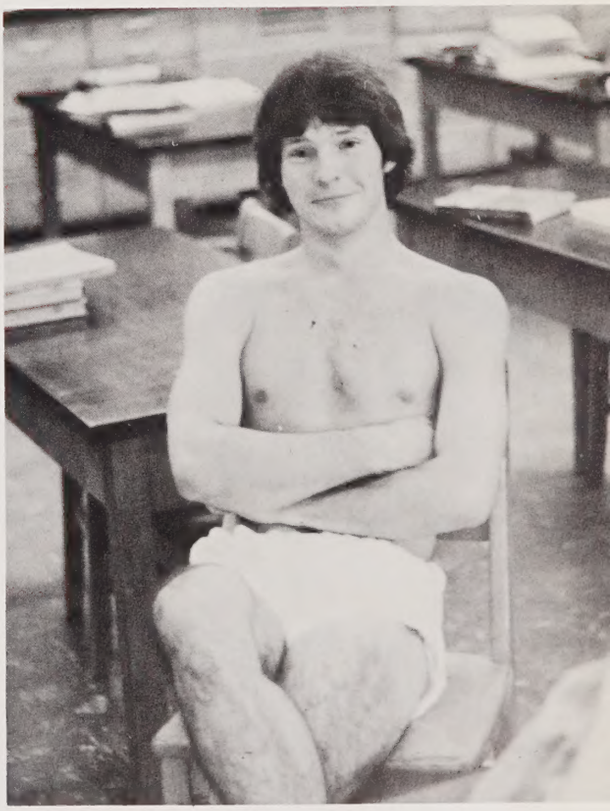




There I go again, looking at life
Through a rose-colored window.
Will all these smiles be around
When tomorrow is yesterday?

"I am not afraid of tomorrow, for I have seen yesterday and I love today."

- William Allen White



Maybe only in memories, and what are they?
Just remember the power we possess
If we've learned to sift through this Crowd of faces —

and pull out individualism.
Sure, I can wear the multitude's facade
But what if I blink and the faces change and everybody's different?

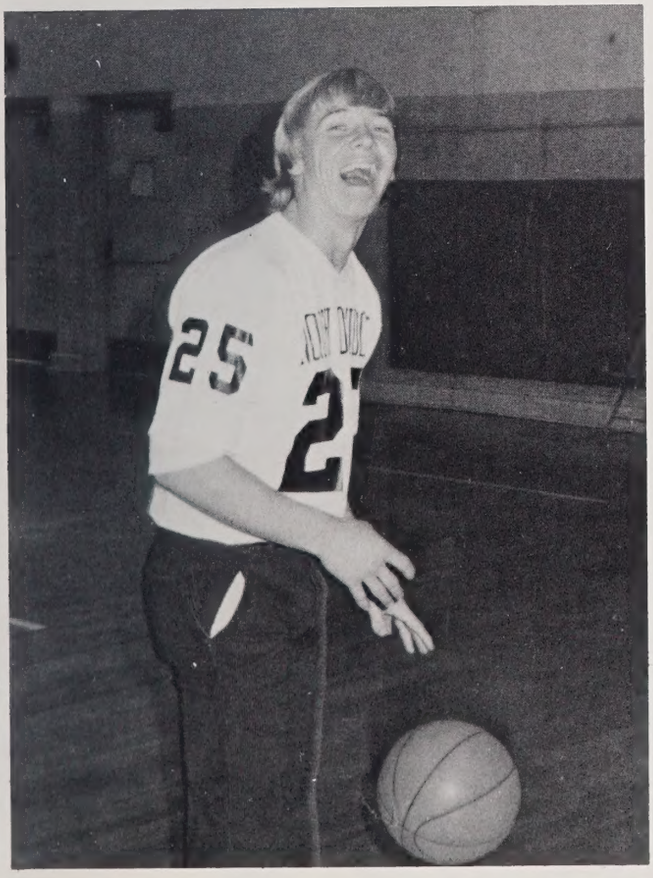
2 5908 00719037 9

If we find ourselves gazing ahead,
Can't we reach into a little bag
and pull out a past moment
To help light our path?

"The only limit to our realization of tomorrow will be our doubts of today. Let us move forward with strong and active faith."

- Franklin Delano Roosevelt



FEATURES

Hi! I'm your roving reporter at the Homecoming Parade and I wanna tell ya, have I got it made!
There's Miss North Davidson, and the Homecoming Queen, and the toughest cars that I've ever seen!
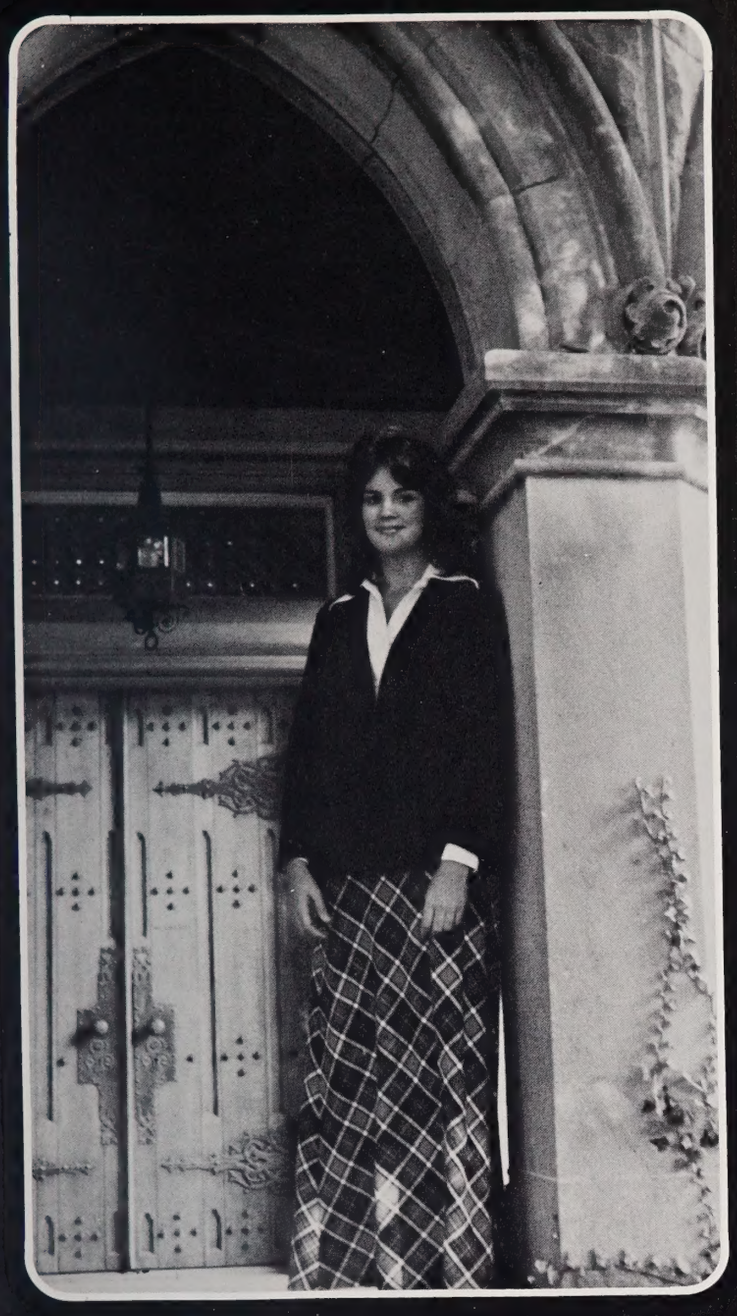
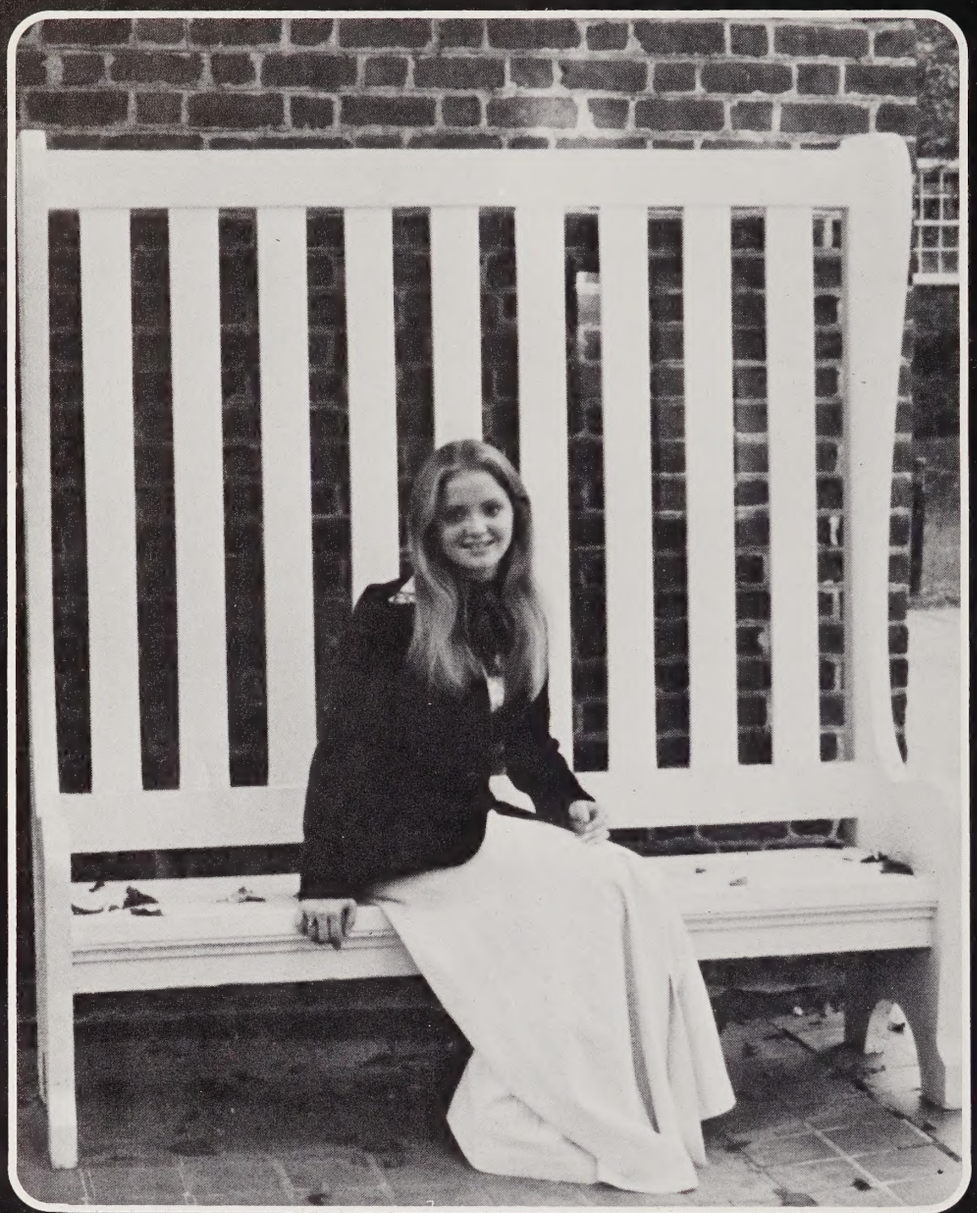
But seriously the girls are the reason I stayed,
(But I loved that green Vette that sparkled like jade)
You say putting cars over girls is unkeen?
Don't blame me too much, heck, I'm only fourteen!

MISS DAVIDSON COUNTY



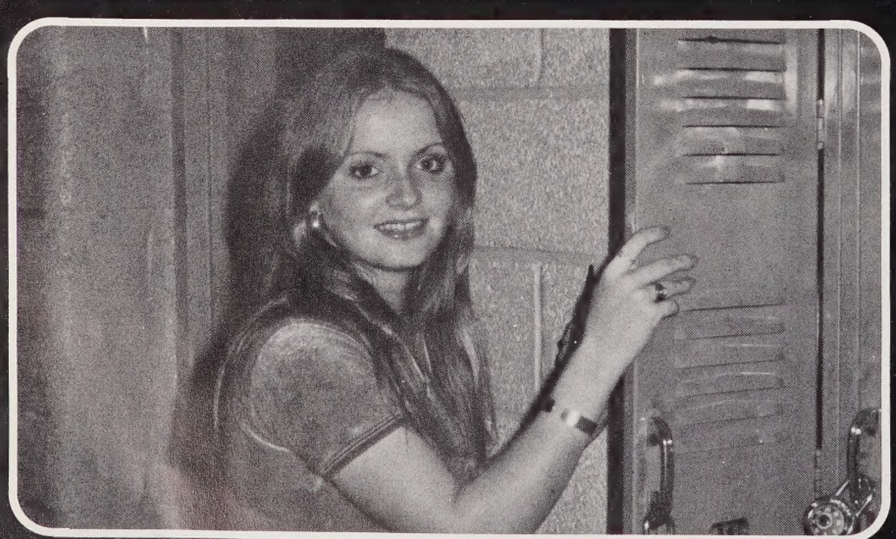
. . . Miss North Davidson. Chosen by the students, Johnsie Stewart exemplifies the image of a versatile senior girl. A five foot eight brunette with large brown eyes, she radiated beauty to many as she was also crowned Miss Sixteen North Carolina and FFA Sweetheart. Active in extra-curricular activities, she participates in the Junior Civitans and the Pep Club. Concerned for those around her, Johnsie plans to become a social worker or join the Peace Corps.

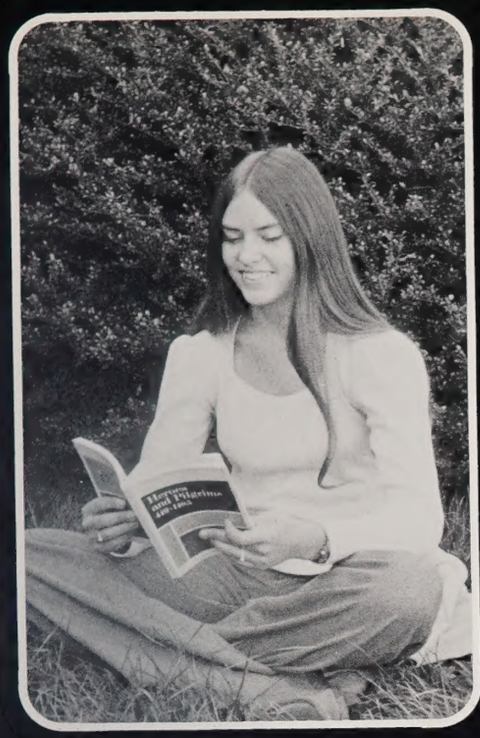
FIRST RUNNER-UP

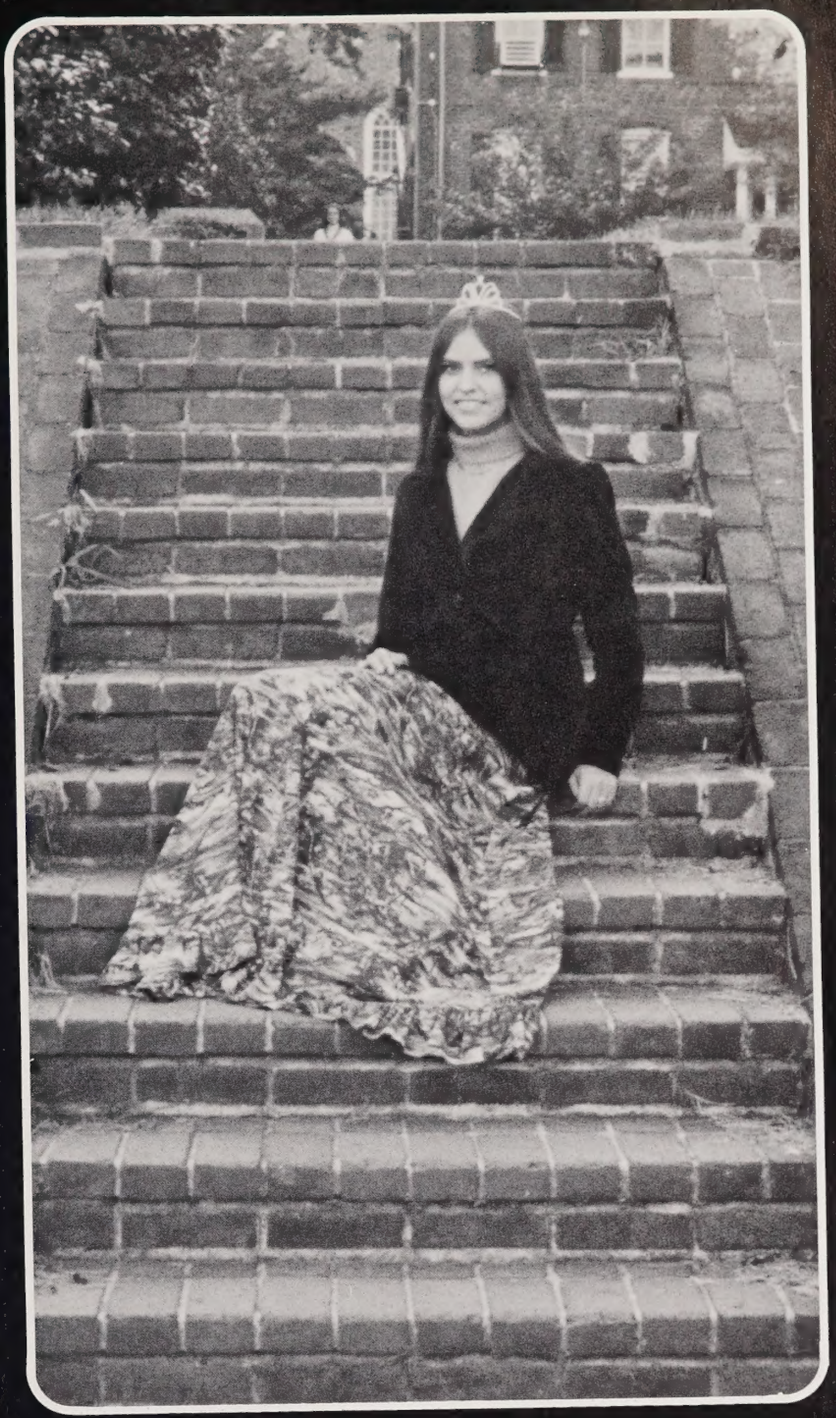


Miss Deborah Rumfelt

An extremely talented Sr. girl, Deborah Rumfelt was First Runner-up to Miss North Davidson and represented North in the Veterans' Day Parade. A varsity cheerleader, Deborah is chief of the squad and enjoys supporting the Knights. She is interested in gymnastics and hopes to attend modeling school or study X-ray technology.



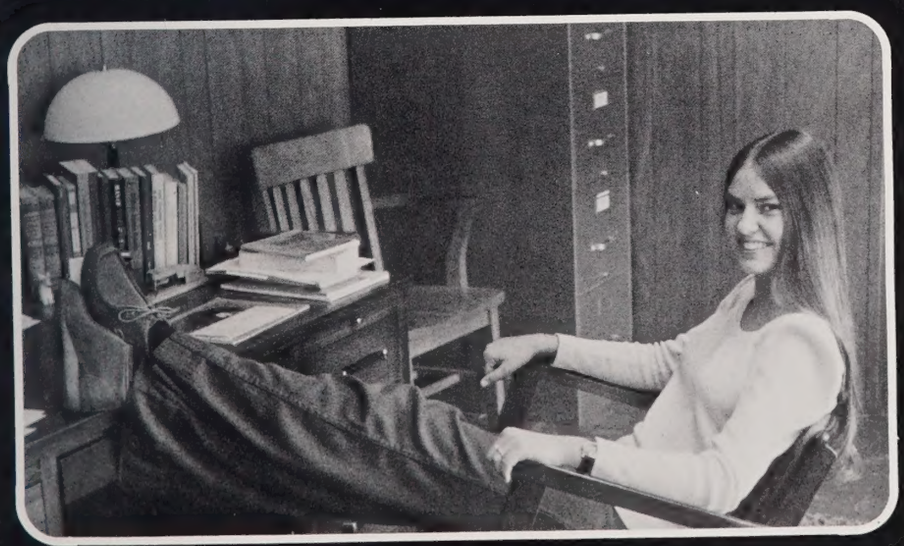




HOMECOMING

. . . QUEEN

Another victory for the Knights and the crowning of a new queen, Dawn Moore, completed the events of Homecoming 1975. Dawn, a five foot seven brunette Senior, was selected by the Varsity Football team. She enjoys vacationing at the beach.

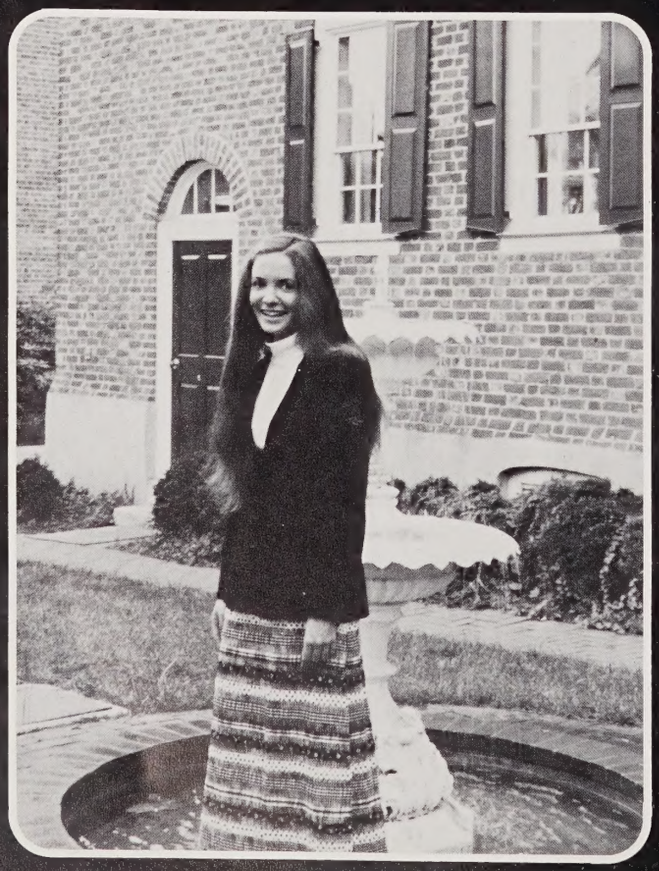


. . . COURT

Diane Davis is a five foot three blonde with brown eyes. She enjoys cooking and playing the piano and organ.

Jeanne Hensley is five foot five and has blue eyes. Some of her hobbies include swimming and tennis.

Actively involved in the FBLA, Susan Everhart plans to attend college and major in business. Her hobbies include decoupaging.



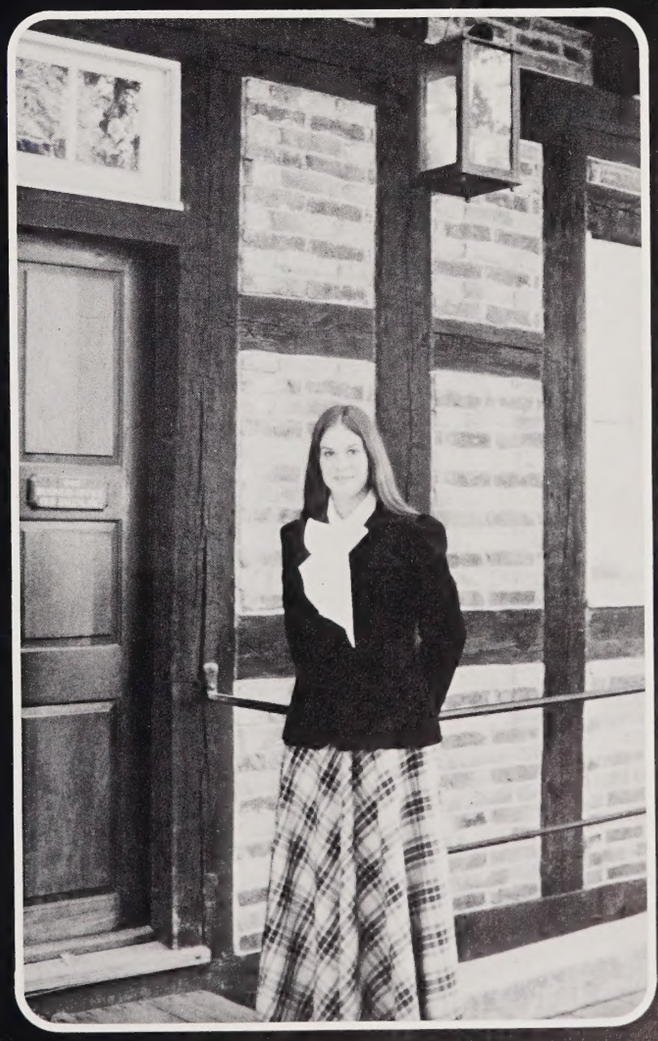
A member of the Medical Careers Club, Ava Koontz plans to pursue a career in medical technology.

After graduating, Sheila Weaver intends to enter Lexington Beauty College and become a hairstylist.

Teresa Martin, a brown-eyed brunette, participates in the Medical Careers Club and plans to become a nurse.

Melody Scott, a blue-eyed brunette, likes to travel. She intends to major in French at college.

A blue-eyed brunette, Sherry Colvard, enjoys tennis and horseback riding. She is a member of the Pep Club and FHA.



Five foot six with dark brown hair and green eyes, Donna Foltz is a lifeguard during the summer. She also enjoys traveling to the beach.

Five foot five with brown hair, Candace Boyette raises Irish Setters and also enjoys fishing and sewing.

Athletically inclined, Teresa Sink, with waist-length brown hair, is a member of the girls' Track, Basketball, and Softball teams.

A five foot two green-eyed blonde, Joanie Wilkins' hobbies consist of horseback and motorcycle riding. She plans to study nursing after graduation.

Sherry Hines is a member of the Track and Softball teams. She plans to take a business course to aid her career as a Secretary.

A four foot eleven Senior, Vanessa Bell is Chief Majorette. Her future plans include studying fashion merchandising.

A blue-eyed brunette, Kay Lanier would like to attend college where she will study dental hygiene.

Fond of dancing and traveling, Margie Smoot plans to attend college after graduation to study modeling.

Cindy Stewart is five foot four and has sandy brown hair. Snow and water skiing are just a few of her favorite pastimes.

MONDAY

Flowers would bloom all year
And Christmas would come once a month
If only Mondays were Fridays.

TUESDAY

A second step is important
Because it is one more move
In a direction or towards decision.

WEDNESDAY

What if...
Somewhere in the middle sat
A little pink man ringing a bell
And shouting that half a week was gone.

THURSDAY

Merriment and fun and jubilation
All surround the proclamation
That the ending is beginning to come.

FRIDAY

He once came to me in late afternoon
And demanded I give him a daisy.
Replied I "I don't have to,
it's Friday."

SATURDAY

Yesterday we lived for the morning,
But now we live for the night;
Perhaps we will live for tomorrow tomorrow.

SUNDAY

To have a peaceful morning
And spend a quiet day,
That is all I could possibly desire on a Sunday.

SENIORS

If I could stick my hand into this funny little cap and draw out happy memories & dump them in your lap you'd probably say, "Yes, they were nice — Too bad that we can't live them twice."
But there are roads to travel yet, our future must be mapped,
There is much knowledge to be found in sources yet untapped.
and so, my friends, heed this advice —
Life's too short to do things twice.

There is a certain pride of achievement evident in the Senior Black Knight's face as he walks down the center hall for the last time. Behind that look, though, lurk doubts about what is to come - new responsibilities, decisions to be made, friendships to be cultivated. All together it can get a little frightening; yet, the CLASS OF '76 - like no other class in history - finds assurance in the privilege of graduating with its nation. Surely the same spirit that brought our country to life will go with us as we leave our home of 12 years to make us proud in all our endeavors that we came from Knight Country.

"In the years to come . . ." we shall look back with admiration at our leaders for 1976: Bradley Thomason, President; Pam Berrier, Vice President; Melody Scott, Secretary; and Freddy Pope, Treasurer.

It seems that I am caught right in the middle,
It seems that all my work's not worth a fiddle.
No matter what I do or what I say -
Someone does or says it better the next day.
This year has really been a riddle,
One day I'm big, and then the next I'm little.
But don't think I need help to find my way!
For I will reach the top, and there I'll stay!

The CLASS OF '77 chose class officers Steve Conrad, President; Dinah Thomas, Vice President; Laverne Hales, Secretary; and Tammy Berrier, Treasurer to lead them in the eventful 1975-1976 school year. The Juniors were united in spirit as they undertook the challenges presented by float building for the Homecoming Parade and by fund raising for the Junior-Senior Prom. Their confidence and enthusiasm were evident as they took the PSAT and received their class rings. Throughout all of this, while still retaining their individuality, the Class of '77 shared the unity of spirit, purpose, and enthusiasm of the entire student body.

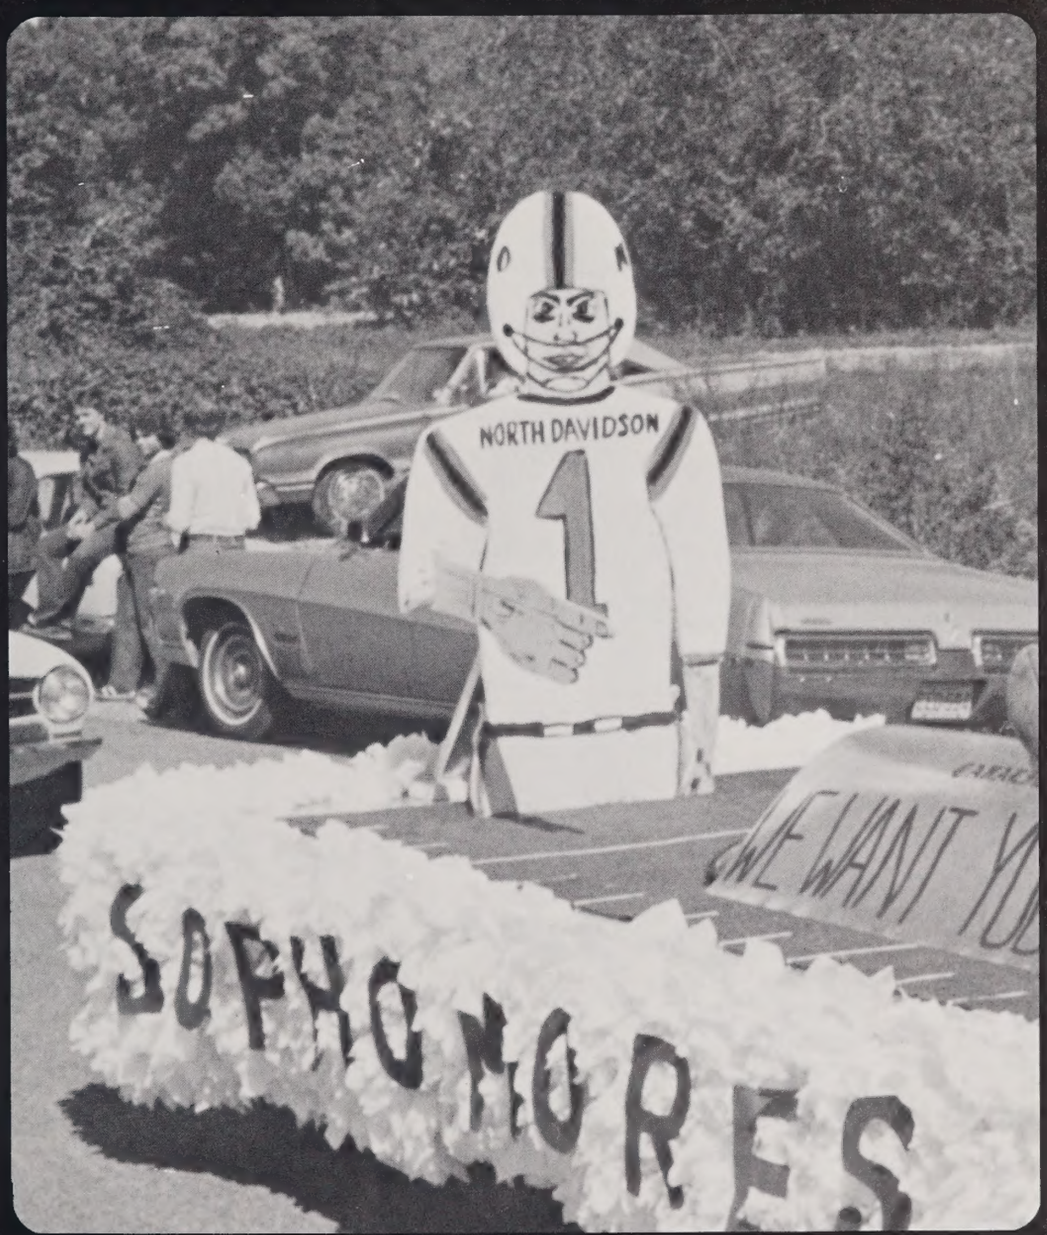
SOPHS



We thought that we had reached the top, but now -
We're on the bottom
Those swelled heads that we all had, now
Someone else has got 'em.
My, but we've put up a fight!
But our goal is still way out of sight
This year upperclassmen call us rotten.
But in a couple of years that'll all be forgotten
So sympathize with us in our plight
Just 'cause we're younger don't mean we ain't bright!

Leading the Sophomore Class to many outstanding achievements were four fantastic class officers: President Karen Lanier; Vice President Perry Tuttle; Secretary Laura Clark; and Treasurer Libby Whicker. With high goals in their plans they and their class members are proud to claim the title of Class of '78!

FACULTY

Of all the jobs I envy - I envy mine the least,
I dread the thought of facing 30 smiling little beasts.
Excuse me, there's a spitwad in my hair.
John! Get that goldfish outta my chair!
When the quiver in my voice has finally ceased
I say "Class, does the sun rise in the west or the east?"
and I'm greeted with a chorus of "Who knows, and who cares?"
and you wonder why teachers have vacant stares!

I always wanted to be an athlete —
To be the idol of all the fans,
To draw praise from Don & Steve & Pete
and roars from all the stands.
I'd run the ball, I'd pass complete,
I'd be as graceful as any man can.
But when I run, my great big feet
Become entangled in my hands!

WNCHSAA CHAMPS

The road to victory is long and narrow, allowing only the strongest of body and quickest of mind to reach that final goal. Many fall along the way, but North's Varsity travelled this road many times, each time coming closer to the top. This year they made it. Winning with impressive margins of 55,42,41, etc., the Knights captured the North Piedmont Conference Championship. The Knights' record of 11-1-1 added one more feather to the school's victory cap as the Knights captured the WNCHSAA Championship.

North's 75-76 Junior Varsity unit proved that nothing is ever gained without hard work as they finished second only to a tough South Rowan team. North can be proud of their J.V.'s as they displayed an impressive 8-1-1 record. Although often operating in the shadow of North's Varsity, our J.V.'s exemplified the superiority of a Black Knight squad.

For the second consecutive season North's Varsity boys have dominated North Piedmont Conference play. With five men returning from last year's championship squad, the Knights led the N.P.C. most of the year. One of these five was Senior Steve Cloer who set a new school scoring record of 1299, topping Frankie Essick's 1975 total of 1060.

Once again the Varsity girls had an exciting season of basketball. Although their record of 8-15-0 was somewhat disappointing, they continually kept the crowd on edge with their close scores and neck to neck play. Their steady improvement makes the Lady Knights a team to keep your eyes on.

For the first time in its history, North had both a girls' and boys' Junior Varsity squad. The girls' team was small but worked hard to carry on the Knight spirit. Their disappointing record of 3-8-0 did not show the team's true potential. The boys displayed an excellent record of 18-2-0 which merely proves there is power in unity. This record won them the 1975-76 Jr. Varsity N.P.C. Championship.

The 1975 baseball season was an exciting one for North Davidson fans, as our Knights captured the N.P.C. Championship crown. After a shaky start, North won seven straight conference games and claimed the division title with a play-off victory over North Stanly. All that remained was a scuffle with arch-rival East Rowan, the Division II Champ. North emerged a 2-0 victor and carried away the big trophy. Larry Johnson received All-Conference honors.

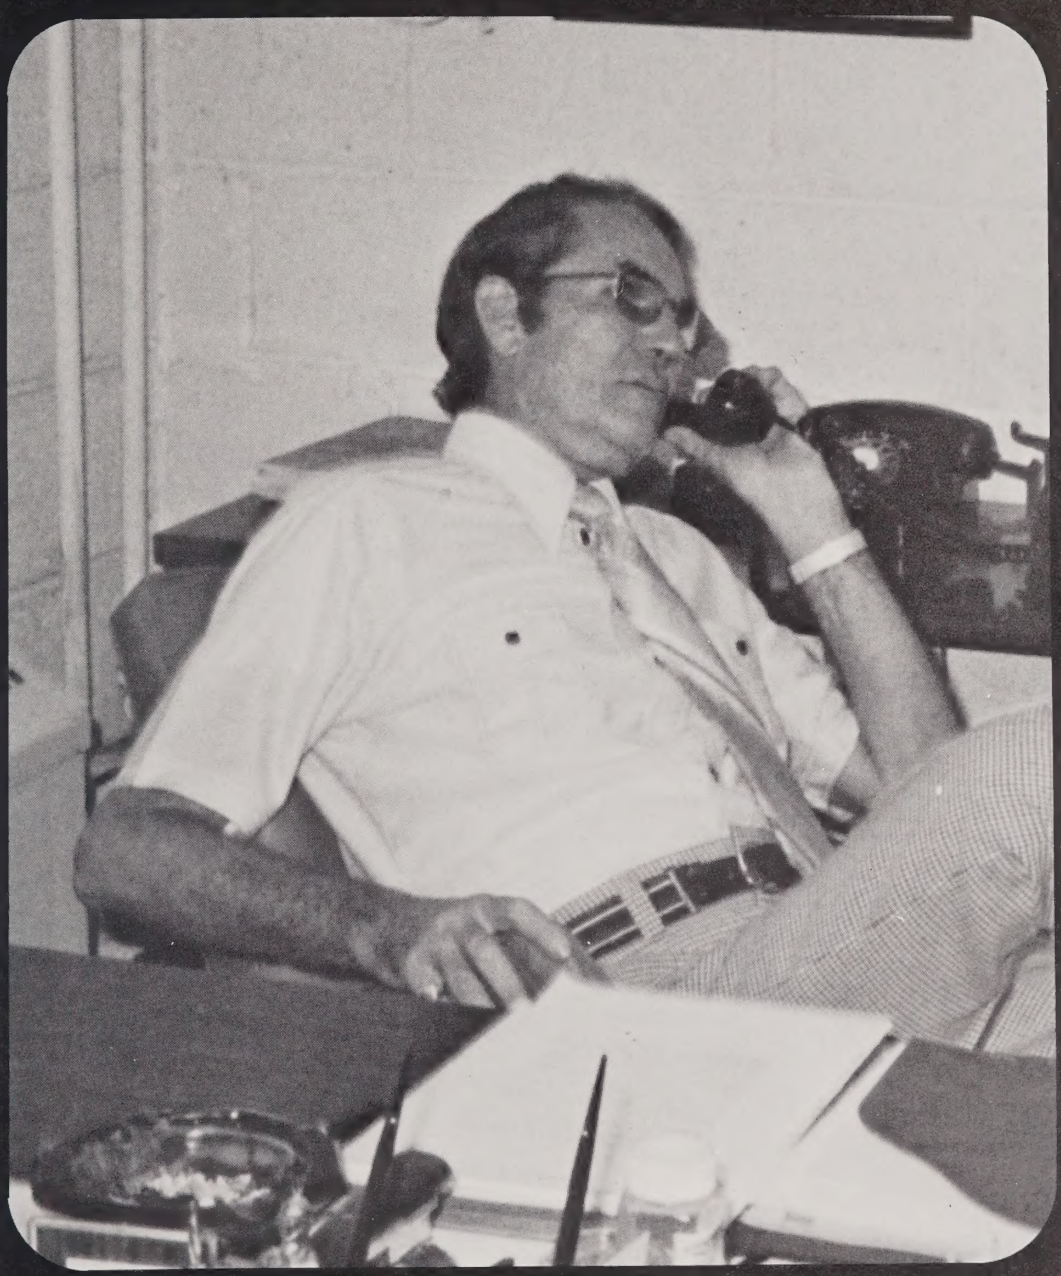
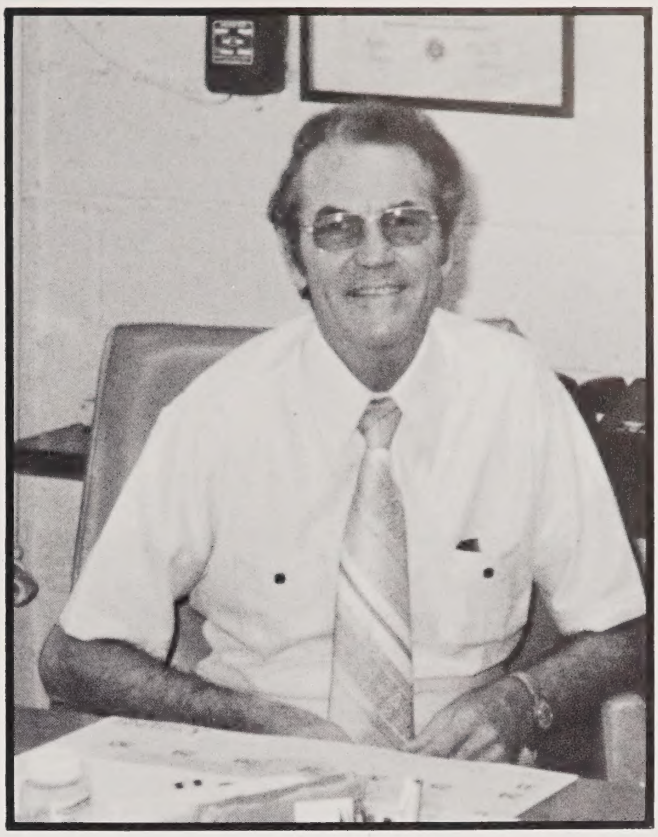
V I P

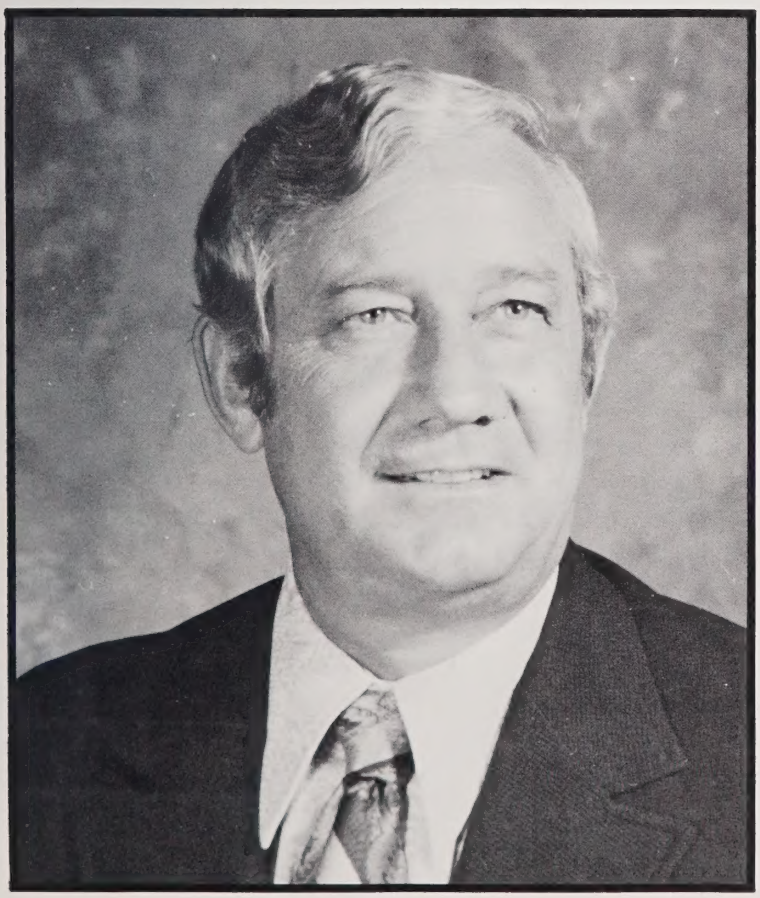


I dreamed I saw a door on which was written VIP
I thought that I would open it to see what I could see.
There stood a pretty lady who wore a shining crown,
and a man who was so busy, he thought that up was down
I wondered and I pondered on who these two might be,
and I guess that they were wondering the same thing about me!
Well, one is Susan Lawrence, who is known the nation around
The other's Mr. Teal, who is known about the town!

Best Wishes From NDSH

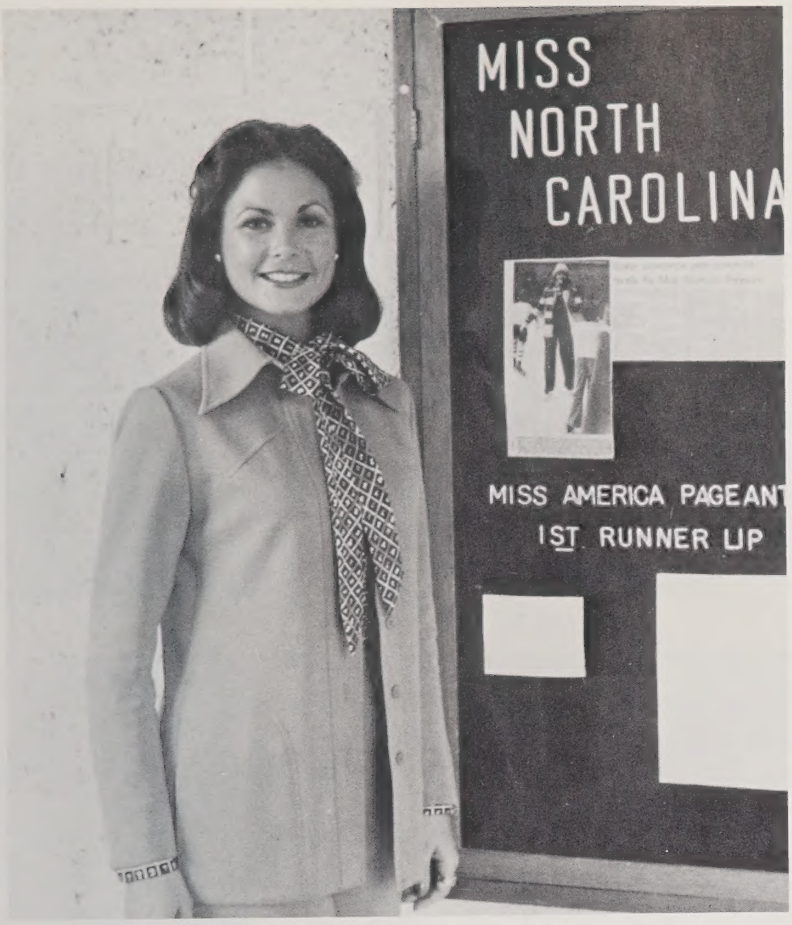
As the Class of '76 leaves the Home of the Knights it does so with the realization that our Principal, Mr. James O. Teal, may soon be leaving too. We wish to take this opportunity to salute you, Mr. Teal, for the many extraordinary accomplishments you have made as the Principal of North Davidson Senior High. We hope that Mr. and Mrs. Teal will now be able to take a vacation from the routine life of a high school Principal and wife to enjoy their leisure-time activities of world traveling or relaxing at the beach.





NORDAHI Salutes Mr. Lawson Brown

In recognition of his many hours of service to education as Superintendent of Davidson County schools, The NORDAHI salutes Mr. E. Lawson Brown.



The Annual Staff would like to congratulate Susan Lawrence on her recent accomplishments. She is a 1972 graduate of North Davidson Senior High School who presently reigns as Miss North Carolina and Runner Up in the Miss America Pageant.

Susan sets sights on national title

By BOB BERTINI
TIMES Staff Writer

CHARLOTTE — "She's magic."

This is how Susan Lawrence's accompanist, Joseph Walker, describes the way she relates to the audience while on stage.

Some of that "magic" evidently rubbed off Saturday night as Susan, 20, representing Thomasville, was crowned Miss North Carolina — the first winner from the Chair City since 1964 when Sharon Finch won the coveted title.

Susan, dressed in a black slinky dress, drew bursts of applause from the capacity crowd of about 2,600 at Ovens Auditorium, as she twirled a red ostrich feather boa while singing her rendition of the title song from the Broadway musical "Cabaret."

Between 60 and 90 Thomasville residents were present at both the preliminary talent competition Thursday night and at the Miss North Carolina Pageant finals Saturday.

"It was like playing (basketball) on your own home court," Susan said, referring to the support from Thomasville.

"I was really disappointed after Thursday night. I was not nervous, but I had a sore Susan and the other 54 contestants were staying to pay Thomasville's representative a surprise visit — an incident which Susan said was a real morale booster.

The next night Miss Thomasville won the preliminary swimsuit competition.

This preliminary competition was very important since the 10 semifinalists Saturday night were selected on the basis of points scored during the preliminary events.

Each of the 10 semifinalists was required to introduce herself as part of the evening gown competition. As her introduction, Susan said, "Greetings from the Chair City. I feel the way to be happy is to make others happy. Helping others is the secret to all success in business, in the arts and in the home. It is by completing what God gives us to do that we find real happiness."

For the evening gown competition, the 5-foot-9 Miss Thomasville wore a black dress with princess lines. The dress featured a scalloped neckline with a low V-back and was covered with sequins. Her brown hair was arranged in a neat page boy style.

The new Miss North Mrs. Roger V. Lawrence of Midway. She is a 1972 graduate of North Davidson Senior High School and has studied fashion merchandising at King's College in Charlotte. She is presently employed at Montaldo's in Winston-Salem.

Appearing on stage is nothing new for Susan. She won a state drama award during high school and has been a member of the New Heritage Singers at her church, a touring musical group. She belongs to Midway United Methodist Church. The new state queen lists her favorite hobbies and sports as camping, gardening, cycling, going for long quiet walks on beautiful days, creative crafts, needlepoint, cooking and sewing.

Despite her stage experience, Susan said Sunday that the Miss North Carolina Pageant was a unique experience for her because of the caliber of the competition.

However, Susan said participating in the state pageant did have its lighter moments. For example, this is the first year that judges have stayed at the same location as the contestants. This arrangement, according to Susan, produced some very

'Well done Susan'

Miss N.C. exchanges autographs at reception

Miss North Carolina, Susan Lawrence, is used to signing autographs. Tuesday she unexpectedly received one.

While at a reception Tuesday afternoon at Thomasville Junior High School, Jenny Black, 6, a first-grade student at Fair Grove Elementary School, presented the state queen with an autographed school picture. The picture was signed on the back in the child's scribbled handwriting.

The child is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Eddie Black of Kennedy Road. According to her mother, Jenny has been a big fan of Miss North Carolina and pleaded Saturday night to be able to watch Susan participate in the Miss America Pageant.

"She went to bed right after dinner and slept until 10 o'clock so that she could watch the pageant on television," Mrs. Black said.

The state queen went on to capture the first runner-up spot in the national pageant. Over 200 persons from across the Triad stopped by the cafeteria of Junior High from 4:30 to 6 p.m. to express their appreciation to Susan.

Hubert Leonard presented Susan with a leather garment bag (for traveling purposes) on behalf of the Thomasville Merchants Association, while Dave Ogren, president of the Thomasville Area Chamber of Commerce, gave Susan a pen on behalf of the chamber (for signing autographs).

The pen was gold plated and inscribed with the words, "Well done Susan." In addition, Bob Harrington of Thomasville gave Susan three lithographed pictures of the Greater Greensboro Open (GGO) golf tournament from Jaycees and former Jaycees in Greensboro.

Mayor Jim Johnson was present and extended congratulations of behalf of the citizens of Thomasville. Repeating the remarks of a Charlotte Jaycee after the Miss America Pageant, Johnson said, "America's loss is North Carolina's gain."

A similar reception was held after Susan won the Miss North Carolina crown in June. Both events have been sponsored by the chamber of commerce.

Susan said she was satisfied and "not the least bit disappointed." She added that she was excited just to make the top 10 because so many people here were pulling for her and she "did not want to let them down."

This past year has been one of diversity for all students here at North Davidson, yet it has been one of good times. We, the editors of the Nordahi, have attempted to accomplish the awesome task of truly capturing these good times in a yearbook.

This yearbook would not have been possible without the constant efforts of Miss Mathews (who handled our finances), Mr. Teal (who always co-operated with us), Mr. Joe DeMaio (who offered many ideas and assistance in compiling these pages), the Annual Staff itself (whose members' dedication, co-operation, and hard work made this book possible), and most especially Mrs. Hedrick (whose diligent efforts and continuing guidance made this edition of the Nordahi a reality). We would like to express our sincere thanks and deepest gratitude to all of these special people and all of their work.

Our final desire is that each of you will enjoy cherishing these memories as much as we enjoyed capturing them.

Sincerely,

John Hill, Marty Soweiza
